FATAL NEW YORK FIRE

One Woman Dead and a Number of Persons in Hospital.

MANY OVERCOME BY SMOKE

Owing to the Snow Piled in Front of the Burning Building, Firemen Had Difficulty in Fighting Fire and Rescuing Inmates.

New York, Feb. 8.—One woman is dead and several persons are in the hospital suffering from injuries as the result of a fire which, early Friday, destroyed the five-story brick apartment building at the northwest corner of Columbus avenue and Seventh street.

The fire is supposed to have started in the drawing room of the domestic laundry in the basement and owing to the lack of water pressure, spread with such rapidity that the occupants had little opportunity to reach the street.

Margaret Mandon, 22 years of age, fell from the fifth floor and was fatally injured. She had been standing on the fire escape waiting for the arrival of the firemen, when she slipped from the icy grating and fell to the pavement. She was removed to the hotel Walton across the street where she died a few moments later.

Owing to the snow piled in front of the building, the firemen had great difficulty in raising ladders to take down the tenants. As a result of this delay many were overcome by smoke and cold and were carried to the hotel Walton where they were attended by doctors and cared for by the hotel management. The building was damaged to the extent of $88,000.

"SHOE DAY" IN NEW YORK.

Institution Established by "Big Tim" Murphy, of that City.

New York, Feb. 8.—Thursday was "shoe day" on the Bowery, and 5,000 men are now tramping the Bowery sidewalks wearing new shoes and new woolen socks.

"Shoe day" is an institution and was established by Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan, known to his constituents and New York generally as "Big Tim."

Every year Sullivan gives away shoes to every man of his district who needs them, and Thursday more than 5,000 were in line long before the doors of the club rooms were opened for the distribution. The annual distribution of shoes is Sullivan's pet charity, for, he says, "a man can march to glory in a pair of new shoes and dry socks."

COMPLETES ARRANGEMENTS.

Republican Convention Will Meet in Coliseum at Chicago.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Chairman New, Secretary Dover and others of the sub-committee of the republican national committee, practically have completed the hall arrangements for the national convention which is to be held in Chicago next June.

The convention will assemble in the Coliseum—the scene of many historic gatherings—which was designed and erected with special reference to the needs of a political convention. It is admirably located, being only about twelve minutes' walk from the business center of Chicago, and is reached by electric surface cars.

Warfield to Play in London.

New York, Feb. 8.—It is announced that David Warfield, the actor, is to play in London in the fall. In addition to the plays in which he has been successful in America, Mr. Warfield, his manager announces, will be seen as Shylock. It is known that it has been Mr. Warfield's ambition to appear in Shakespearean roles.

Rolling Mill Burned.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 7.—The Licking Rolling mill, on Twelfth street and the Licking river, was almost entirely destroyed by fire Thursday. The loss is estimated at $200,000. The mill gave employment to 400 men.

NIGHT RIDERS' DEPREICATIONS.

They Destroy Barns and Tobacco and Wound Man and His Son.

Adams, Tenn., Feb. 8.—Night riders, between thirty-five and fifty strong, well armed and mounted, visited the farms of Hugh C. Lawrence and Wash Tucker, within three miles of this place Thursday night, destroying the barns on both farms, together with 20,000 pounds of tobacco, shot and wounded Lawrence and his son, Bradley Lawrence, and whipped a negro named Motlow in rather an unmerciful manner.

The riders first visited the farm of Lawrence. He and his son were in the barn loading their tobacco on the wagons and heard the night riders coming from all directions. They came out of the barn and started toward the house and when within fifteen or twenty yards of the house they met ten or a dozen of the riders and at once opened fire on them. They returned the fire, wounding Lawrence in the cheek and in the hand and his son in the leg. None of the wounds, however, are serious.

Mr. Lawrence thinks he wounded one of the night riders.

The night riders then went to the barn and after shooting a horse, put dynamite under the two wagons loaded with tobacco, and blew them to pieces. The barn was burned to the ground with about 12,000 pounds of tobacco.

The riders then went to the farm of Wash Tucker, where they burned his barn and about 8,000 pounds of tobacco without molestation.

BOTH CLAIMED THIS MAN.

Two Women at Chicago Railway Station Meet With a Surprise.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Two women, both claiming to be the wife of the same man, and both having letters purporting to prove that he was the husband of two other women, were introduced to each other Thursday at the Maxwell street police station.

Photographs of the husband whom both said had deserted them, carried by both complainants, Miss Anna Reingold, of this city, and Mrs. Sarah Dossin, of St. Louis, led at once to the discovery that the missing spouse of each was the same man. Another joint surprise came when Mrs. Dossin asked Miss Reingold: "Are you Mrs. Julius Brownstone, of Montreal, Canada? I've got letters to prove that my husband married her before he married me," to which Miss Reingold retorted by suggesting that perhaps Mrs. Dossin was really Mrs. Rosa Dossick of New York who, she had been informed, had married her husband before she herself had met him.

Mrs. Dossin has heard that the object of the joint question is in Cleveland, Ohio.

TO BE HOT CAMPAIGN.

Eighty-Four Illinois Counties Will Vote on the Liquor Question.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Headed by what promises to be hot campaigns in Springfield, Bloomington and Decatur, residents of eighty-four Illinois counties will vote on the saloon question in the Spring.

Thursday was the last day for filing petitions asking that the issue be submitted to the voters and reports received from many counties indicate that the anti-alcohol adherents have been successful in obtaining enough signatures to allow the question to be balloted on at the polls.

It is estimated that 1,200 towns will take part in the contest.

Fatal Explosion in Quarry.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Three men were fatally injured and several others seriously hurt by an explosion of dynamite in the quarries of Dilco and Shepard in the suburb of Hawthorne Thursday. The explosion was caused by the carelessness of Richard Schober, a workman, who rammed the explosive too tightly in a hole which he had drilled for a blast.

Fatal Explosion in Mine.

Port Hood, N. S., Feb. 8.—Ten men were imprisoned and are believed to be dead as the result of an explosion at the Port Hood coal mines on Friday. Seven bodies have been taken out.

JUDGE HARGIS SLAIN

Noted Kentucky Jurist and Feudist Killed by His Son.

FIVE SHOTS WERE FIRED

Tragedy Occurred at the General Store of Judge Hargis, While Clerks Were Waiting on Customers—Son Was Placed Under Arrest.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 8.—Former County Judge James Hargis, for many years member of the state democratic executive committee, accused of complicity in many murders and a prominent figure in the feuds which have disrupted Breathitt county for several years, was shot and killed in his general store here, about 3:30 Thursday afternoon by his son, Beach Hargis. The son fired five shots in rapid succession at his father, who fell dead while his clerks were waiting on customers.

Father and Son Quarreled.

The exact cause of the murder has not been learned, but it is supposed to have been the result of differences which have existed between father and son for some time. The two men are reported to have had a severe quarrel several nights ago, when the father, it is alleged, was compelled to resort to violence to restrain his son.

Young Hargis, it is said, had been drinking heavily of late. He came into the store late Thursday afternoon and was apparently under the influence of liquor. Judge Hargis, it is said, spoke to his son about his drinking and a quarrel resulted. Father and son stepped behind a counter in the store, when the son, after only a few minutes' conversation, drew a revolver and fired five shots. Four took effect, and the noted mountain character fell dead. The young lady stenographer and the customers in the store rushed for the doors and fled in fright.

Raving Like a Maniac.

Young Hargis was arrested by Town Marshals Goran Smith and Grover Blanton, and placed in jail. He was raving like a maniac and the officers were compelled to drag him to the jail.

Judge Hargis has been for years a prominent figure in Kentucky political and criminal circles. He has figured in the courts in the mountains for years on account of the murders of Dr. Cox, Attorney Marcum and Jim Cockrell.

Judge Hargis was the political leader of the democrats of the tenth district and was the "boss of Breathitt county."

SHOT BY HIS PATIENT.

Osteopathist Probably Fatally Wounded at Columbus, Ga.

Columbus, Ga., Feb. 8.—A little before 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon Ed Power shot and probably fatally wounded Dr. L. F. Meyers, an osteopath, in the latter's office. From the best information, Power went to Meyers' office, called the latter to the door and, after a few words, fired the shot, the ball entering the cheek just under the left eye, lodging in the base of the neck.

Power said he had to do it; that Meyers had taunted and worried him with telepathic power for two years past. After the shooting, Power was arrested and locked up. Meyers is well known and prominent. Power is a grocery clerk. Meyers' condition is quite critical.

No Result in Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—The ballot for United States senator, taken in joint session of the legislature Thursday was again without result. The ballot resulted: Beckham, 40; Bradley, 10; Blackburn, 16; McCrory, 3; Allen, 1; Watterson, 1; John M. Atherton, 1.

Night Riders Still Busy.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 8.—A small band of "riders" operated in North Christian county, Wednesday night. Telephone wires were cut in several places. Lucian Means, a farmer, is said to have been whipped for selling tobacco outside of the association.

TRUSTEES INDICTED.

Also Night Jailer for Aiding Escape of Jail Prisoners.

Atlanta, Feb. 8.—Former Night Jailer James Brown, of the Fulton county Tower, and John Groves and J. C. Williams, the two trustees, were Thursday indicted by the grand jury on the charge of aiding John Harper and John Barton to escape on Sunday night, one true bill being returned against the three.

The implication of the jailer comes through the allegation that he went to sleep at his post of duty and put Williams and Groves in charge of the jail, turning over the keys to the last named prisoner, with the result that Harper and Barton were liberated by the trustees, who released them from their cells by means of the keys and assisted in the sawing of the bars of the jail window.

The penalty on conviction on the charge brought against the three is from two to five years.

PRIMARY ON JUNE 4.

Georgia State Democratic Executive Committee Selects Date.

Atlanta, Feb. 8.—Thursday, June 4, has been selected by the democratic state executive committee of Georgia, as the date for holding the approaching democratic primary for the election of United States senator and all state house officers, thereby setting its stamp of approval upon the action of previous executive committees for years past in holding early primaries.

This action was only taken after a most spirited debate, led by Hon. Robert L. Berner, who declared that it was only carrying out the provisions of the Macon platform to have a late primary.

Tuesday, June 23, was named as the date for holding the state convention in the hall of the house of representatives, at 10 a. m. at which time the nominees are to be announced and delegates to the national convention from Georgia to Denver are to be elected.

MINISTERS TO BEGIN CAMPAIGN.

Efforts To Be Made to Wipe Out the "White Slave Traffic."

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The preachers of Chicago intend to wipe out the white slave traffic in this city.

Next Monday three hundred ministers representing all the Protestant denominations will assemble and organize a Chicago branch of the National Vigilance committee for the suppression of the white slave traffic. Dr. Edwards Janney, of Baltimore, Md., organizer of the national body, will address the meeting and lay down plans for campaigning. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the ministers' association.

Date of Meeting Adjourned.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 8.—It is not probable that the meeting of the inter-state commerce commission which was to have been held at New Orleans, about February 18 will take place until some time after the date originally appointed. The United States marshal here is in receipt of a message from E. Z. Mosely, secretary of the commission, stating that it will not be necessary to reserve quarters for the commission in the custom house here February 18, because the present session of the commission has been adjourned to a day not yet fixed.

Well Known Educator Dead.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Dr. Albert Harrison Miter, professor emeritus of modern languages at the university of Rochester, died at his home here Friday at the age of eighty-five. He was a member of the original faculty of the university in 1866 and taught here 42 years. For ten years he was professor of Greek and modern languages in the university of Chicago, in the state of Illinois.

Officer Drowned at Sea.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 8.—News received here from Pensacola says that when the coasting steamer Mantua entered here Thursday night from Mobile on her outward trip to Tampa, Captain McLaughlin reported the loss while the boat was in Mobile Bay of Captain Dan Houghton, first officer of the ship, who fell overboard and was drowned, his body not being recovered.

DENVER GETS BUSY

Colorado City Preparing For the Democratic Convention.

CAN HANDLE LARGE CROWD

Nine Sub-Committees Have Been Appointed and Work of Preparing for the Comfort of the Visitors Parceled Out to Them.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 8.—The local committee of the democratic national committee having in charge the details of the quartering and entertaining the delegates during the national convention in July, announces that there will be no excessive charges permitted for hotel and other accommodations.

The committee also wishes to assure the public that Denver is able to furnish comfortable quarters for an enormous crowd at reasonable prices. The committee points to the manner of handling the Grand Army convention several years ago, when upwards of 100,000 people were guests of the city as proof of this assertion.

Nine sub-committees were appointed, and the work of preparing for the comfort of the visitors parceled out to them. Delegations from each state will be received and looked after by residents of Denver, selected and placed on special committees by reason of their previous residence in the state from whence comes the particular delegation they will care for. The entertainment of visitors will be carried out on an elaborate scale and a fund is to be collected for this purpose.

WHISKY PEOPLE MAKE FIGHT.

Liquor Question Has Been Carried to Alabama Supreme Court.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 8.—The fight of the whisky people to break down the local option law came to the supreme court Thursday in a case from Morgan county. Refusal of the demand for license was appealed and the argument is made that the law is unconstitutional in many ways, principally in that it does not apply to the state as a whole, but to special counties, and is not, therefore, a general law, though passed as such.

Many of the leading lawyers of the state made speeches. The case is watched with interest as its outcome will depend the restoration or not of the sale of liquors in Birmingham as well as many other counties.

The early closing law is also attacked in the case of Fourmont versus the State from Mobile. It being alleged that the law is unconstitutional in that its full intent is not expressed in the title.

LYNCHING IN LOUISIANA.

Mob Hanged Alleged Negro Murderer to Railroad Water Tank.

Dahl, La., Feb. 8.—Robert Mitchell, an alleged negro murderer, was taken from a deputy sheriff by a mob Thursday evening and lynched. A rope was placed around the negro's neck and he was hanged to a nearby railroad water tank.

Mitchell is alleged to have shot and killed, without provocation, Leon Threlkeld, manager of the Pioneer Canebrake company, 8 miles west of Oak Grove. He escaped, but was later captured and turned over to the parish authorities. A deputy sheriff was on his way to Floyd, La., with the negro prisoner, when he was met by the mob.

Express Train Wrecked.

Philadelphia, Feb. 8.—The Pennsylvania railroad has received a report that an express train from Baltimore to Buffalo was wrecked near Franklinville, twenty-one miles north of Olean, N. Y., on the Buffalo division. A coach, a sleeper and the locomotive were thrown into a small creek. Sixteen persons were injured.

Boarding Train, Dropped Dead.

Rome, Ga., Feb. 8.—While boarding a Southern train at Oresburg, six miles north of here, John Mason, a Floyd county farmer, aged sixty-five, dropped dead from heart failure.

COL. CHUBB TALKS ON CONVENTION

Declares That Regular Convention
Was in Order All the Time.

THE OTHER CROWD MADE ROW.

Forced Their Way Into Hall Where They Were Not Wanted, and Proceeded to Raise Disturbance—Pleading to Officers Was of No Avail.

Hon. Henry S. Chubb, register of the United States land office in this city, and chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, has returned from St. Augustine, where he went to attend the State convention on the 5th inst.

Inasmuch as the press throughout the country had reported such disruption and disorder in the convention,
The Sun representative sought Col.
Chubb for a statement as to the actual facts in the premises, when that distinguished leader of his party authorized the following dictated
statement:

"Upon receipt of the call for a Republican National Convention to be held in the city of Chicago, on June 16, 1908, a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee of Florida
was duly called and by proper vote
ordered a Republican State Convention to be held in the city of St.
Augustine, Feb. 6, 1908. The Republican county committees throughout the State ordered county conventions in compliance with said call of the State committee, whereupon delegates were duly elected and certified by the chairman and secretary of such county conventions to the secretary of the State Central Committee, who is the proper custodian of all credentials. A meeting of the Republican State Central Committee was duly and lawfully called to meet in the city of St.
Augustine at 10:30, Feb. 6, 1908, for the purpose of making up the temporary roll of the State convention, which is the custom throughout the United States of all political parties,
and also of the National committee.

"There appeared only two legal contests with proper papers before the State committee. After the temporary roll had been adopted by the State Central Committee, and the hour had arrived to call the State convention
to order, and the legally elected delegates were in their seats, acting in a dignified manner, disturbing elements headed by one J. N. Strip-pling, and none of whom were entitled to seats in the hall, commenced a mob-like demonstration for the express purpose of preventing the lawful calling to order and the transaction
of the business of the State convention. This crowd of hoodlums, marshaled by Stripling, scarcely any of whom were delegates, had gained entrance to the hall on tickets bearing the name of Henry S. Chubb, chairman, that had been printed without his knowledge or authorization.

"The opera house had been hired by Geo. A. Albin, a prominent citizen of St. Augustine, for the exclusive use of the Republican State Convention.
When it was seen that it was the sole object of this mob to prevent the Republican State Convention from carrying on its legitimate work, Hon. J.
N. Coombs, banker from Apalachicola, Hon. M. B. MacFarlane, a leading lawyer from Tampa, T. F. McGourin, director of bank in Pensacola, Henry S.
Chubb, chairman of State committee,
and other leaders and prominent citizens, begged the chief of police and the authorities to preserve order and remove from the hall persons who were not entitled to remain.
Their wishes were entirely ignored,
and finding that the people who were rightfully and lawfully entitled to the hall would not be permitted to use it for their own exclusive use, and for those for whom it was engaged, the Republican State Convention was regularly called to order and proceeded legally with its business.

"The Republican delegates were not in contention; they were not connected with any altercations; they were not a disturbing element, but remained in their seats and only took part in a legitimate way in the regular work of the State convention. All the tumult and pandemonium and disturbance was created by men who were not delegates, and who acted in a disgraceful manner and for the very purpose of breaking up the Republican State Convention, with the avowed object of keeping the State convention from instructing its duly ected delegates to the National convention for William H. Taft for President of the United States.

"There was no bolt from the convention, and every delegate duly elected, barring a very few exceptions, remained in their seats in a quiet and orderly manner and took part in the deliberations of the State convention.
The Republicans of the State can be assured that the statements in the press that members of the lawful Republican State Convention acted in a riotous manner are absolutely without foundation, but on the contrary did appeal in every possible manner to the police to exclude the mob and their leaders, and not to permit anybody to remain in the hall who were not permitted to do so by the parties who hired and paid for the hall, and to remove those who had crowded in on tickets printed and circulated without the authority of the State committee.

"Every prominent Republican leader
in the State stayed quietly in his seat
in the Republican State Convention, and absolutely took no part with the Stripling mob. The reports that there was any division in the Republican State Convention are in error."

DEATH OF MRS. DUKE.

Well-Known Lady Passed Away Saturday, After a Brief Illness.

Mrs. Mary G. Duke, wife of S. V.
Duke, died at her home in this city
shortly after the noon hour Saturday,
after a brief illness.

Deceased was twenty-seven years
of age. She was born in Shubuta, Miss., September 13, 1880, but came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A.
Crosby, to Florida, in 1883, and was reared at Micanopy, where she was very popular. She was for about four years employed in the profession of school teacher in Alachua county, at which she made a great success.

Deceased moved with her parents to Dunnellon in 1905, and was married to Mr. Duke on April 27, 1907, afterwards making her home here.

Deceased was a member of the Baptist Church, and a faithful and devout Christian. She is survived by a devoted husband, father and mother, one brother, James R. Crosby, and one sister, Miss Susan Crosby, to whom the sympathy of friends and the community is extended.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
Rev. S. B. Rogers of the First Baptist church officiating, and the following gentlemen are requested to act as pall-bearers, meeting at the home fifteen minutes before the funeral hour:
J. S. Beshaw, John Bennett, Albert
O'Neill, Geo. S. Merchant, S. J. Bur-

MR. WALKER HERE.
Man Who Built East Florida Seminary
Barracks Over Twenty Years Ago.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville is John T. Walker of Washington, D. C., a prominent contractor and builder of that city, and senior member of the firm of Walker & Son.

Mr. Walker's visit to Gainesville is one of especial pleasure to him, since at one time he was a "pioneer" citizen of the town. He was the contractor on the old East Florida Seminary barracks here in 1886, at which time he resided here with his family,
and he also erected several residences
throughout the city.

"I can hardly believe my eyes," remarked Mr. Walker Saturday, in talking with a number of friends. "In all my travels, I have never seen a town—I have no reference to mining and 'wild-cat' towns—grow like Gainesville has grown. I have not been here for twelve years, and I note a most remarkable improvement in every quarter, for which I feel very grateful, as Gainesville was my first home in the United States, when I brought my family from England. I am glad to see you prosper."

Mr. Walker spent the day Saturday mingling with his old friends and acquaintances, a few of whom are here yet. Among those are Dr. T. F.
Thomas, Robt. McClellan, Geo. K.
Broome, Henry Ramsey and a half-dozen others, and their meeting was a mutually agreeable one.

a most enjoyable manner, incidentally refreshments being served.

SCROFULA AN INHERITANCE OF DISEASE AND SUFFERING

No truth is more forcibly manifested in physical life than the old saying
"like begets like," for just as the offspring of healthy ancestry are blessed with pure, rich blood, insuring health and strength, so the children of blood tainted parentage inherit a polluted circulation to burden their existence with disease and suffering. Swollen glands about the neck, brittle bones, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, running sores and ulcers and general poor health, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. In some cases the blood is so filled with the scrofulous germs and tubercular matter that from birth life is made miserable with suffering. Others who inherit the disease succeed in holding the trouble in check during young, vigorous life, but when the system has begun to weaken and lose its natural vitality, and especially after a spell of sickness, the ravages of the disease will commence, and in a great many cases terminate in Consumption. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula. It renovates the entire circulation and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and it not only goes to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause and cures the disease, but it supplies the weak, anaemic blood with the healthful properties it is in need of. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and any medical advice about Scrofula given free of charge.

After Prayers Man Suicided.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 7.—After reading several chapters in the Bible and kneeling with members of his family in prayer, David Potts, of East Lake, a suburb, repaired to a rear room, Tuesday morning and with a shotgun blew the top of his head off, killing himself instantly. The man was despondent for several days because of hard times. He came here a year ago from Bibb county, Ala., where he was prosperous as a farmer. He purchased a home and worked as a carpenter, doing well.

ANDREWS TRIAL AT SELMA.

Alleged That Defendant Killed His Father and Young Step-mother.

Selma, Ala., Feb. 7.—Bob Andrews, of Schuster Station, Wilcox county, Alabama, has been arraigned before Judge Mabry, of the city court of Selma, on the charge of killing James Andrews, his father, and Bern Andrews, his step-mother, on the night of Dec. 17, 1904. It is alleged that Andrews acted in conjunction with his brother, John Andrews, who is now serving a life term in the state penitentiary for the same alleged crime.

Several years before the alleged crime, James Andrews, an old planter, married the murdered woman, who was then a girl of about 17 years of age, Andrews being about 60, and possessing two grown sons by a former wife, from whom he had been divorced.

He announced his intentions of willing to her his property. The sons, who had been estranged from their father, objected, and went to the house in an alleged attempt to take the young wife's children.

The mother discovered them, it is alleged, in the attempt, and, rushing out to intercept them, clung to the elder with such determination that he became angered, it is alleged, and shot her. As she fell, the other brother, Bob, it is charged, cut her throat and otherwise mutilated her body.

The old man, hearing the shots, came to the scene, and was himself shot and instantly killed.

John was sentenced to life imprisonment at the first trial, but the sentence against Bob was reversed by the supreme court of Alabama, up on the grounds of a technicality upon drawing the jury.

"BIG STICK" HITS STILLINGS.

Resolutions by numerous labor organizations in various cities, charging violation of the eight-hour law, discrimination against veteran soldiers and the widows of soldiers, and violation of the civil service law have been submitted to congress and the president.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannetti, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Florida Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, there is only one way to cure it.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SPRING PARK CATTLE OFF TO THE FAIR

Consignment Left Saturday Night
to be Exhibited to World.

STOCK MADE A FINE SIGHT

Cattle in Excellent Condition, and Will be Admired by Visitors to Fair.
Many of Them Have Been Prize
Winners at Various State Fairs.

Manager N. A. Callison of Spring Park Farm, one of the finest farms for the breeding of high-grade registered cattle in this section of the South, shipped Saturday night to Tampa the exhibit of the farm which he proposes to install at the Florida State Fair, live stock department, Monday. This consignment comprises twenty-five Herefords, the majority of which are Florida-bred, about a carload of Jerseys, and other stock, and as Manager Callison always keeps the animals in first-class trim, the show will no doubt attract a great deal of attention.

While many of those shipped Saturday are already prize-winners, there are some which have never been exhibited at a fair. They are of fine breed, however, and no fear is anticipated that they will not receive the proper recognition at the State Fair.

Among the famous registered stock
in the lot are Riddle and Dallas, two Hereford bulls who have to their credit prizes from many show rings of the various State fairs, including the Florida State Fair. There are many others which have prizes to their credit, but those mentioned are especially fine.

Manager Callison left Saturday night for Tampa, and will personally supervise his exhibit. Those familiar with cattle who have seen the stock of this farm feel confident that they will come off with many prizes to their credit.

Manager Callison had this exhibit at the meeting of the Farmers' Institute here, and it attracted a great deal of attention from those present, especially the stockmen.

Masquerade Prizes.

The first prize in the masquerade
ball at the Seminary Hall Friday evening, which was a handsome cake,
was awarded to Miss Nina Cellon, while the second prize, a basket of choice fruit, fell to the lot of Miss Evelyn Collins.

As was stated in The Sun of Saturday morning, there was a fairly good crowd in attendance, and those present enjoyed the occasion immensely.

THE INSTALMENT PLAN

Some have criticised the instalment business as a menace to our people. Such indeed it may become when families are loaded up with diamonds, books and other articles of more or less a luxurious nature, when the weekly or monthly payments become a burden and finally the family sense of honor is crushed beneath the load. But the good the instalment business does far outweighs the bad. It is a pleasant contemplation for us to think of the thousands of homes we have had a hand in the establishing. It is pleasant to think that in these cases we have worked hand in hand with Cupid, and that but for the instalment business as we have conducted it,
many a man would have continued to live in a hall-bedroom,
and many a pretty maid to have wasted the beauty of her youth
in waiting—waiting for the man of her choice to make his fortune.

REMAINS TO QUINCY.

Body of J. T. Chester, Killed at High Springs, to be Buried There.

The remains of J. T. Chester, the young white man killed at High Springs by W. H. Temple, were taken to Quincy Saturday morning, where the interment will be held today in the family burying-ground.

This funeral will be a particularly and one, owing to the prominence of the deceased, and the manner in which he met his death.

The remains were accompanied by the grief-stricken wife and two children, who survive.

The sympathy of High Springs
friends is sincerely extended to Mrs.
Chester.

Col. Lloyd and Wife Here.

Among the prominent winter visitors to Gainesville are Col. and Mrs.
J. H. Lloyd of Shoshol, Ind., who are pleasantly lodged at the White House for the season.

No more popular people come to Gainesville than Col. Lloyd and his estimable wife, and their numerous friends anxiously await their arrival each season. For the past twenty years or more they have been regular visitors, and good-naturedly admit that they feel as much at home here
as in Indiana.

Col. Lloyd is also greatly interested in the commercial and other developments of Gainesville, and is very much gratified to note the steady growth of the city.

NO KNIFE WOUNDS ON W. H. TEMPLE

That is The Statement Authorized
by L. W. Fennell.

ONLY WOUND FROM PISTOL

Sheriff Stated That When Searched
No Pistol or Knife Was Found On or About the Dead Man—Preliminary Hearing Not Yet Been Held.

"I cannot understand how the report
got out that W. H. Temple, the man who killed J. T. Chester at High Springs Friday, is suffering from knife wounds; for there is no sign of a knife wound about him," remarked Sheriff L. W. Fennell Saturday, as he read the report in The Sun to the effect that Temple was suffering from knife wounds.

The Sun knows nothing about the case except what could be learned through verbal sources, all of whom stated that it was alleged the dead
man came after Temple with a knife.

"You may quote me as saying that there is absolutely no sign of a knife-wound on Temple's person. The only wound is a bullet through his left hand, supposedly self-inflicted, as the dead man when searched had neither a knife or a pistol about him or on his person."

The date of preliminary hearing of Temple has not yet been set. It has not been decided whether the hearing would take place before Justice Bexley at High Springs or before Judge Mason in this city, but, inasmuch as Temple is now in jail in Gainesville,
the chances are that it will be held here.

Temple rests as easily in jail as is possible under the circumstances.
Those about the jail state that he is taking matters coolly, and that he refuses to discuss the unfortunate affair in any form.

Eighteenth Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. L. B. Fletcher, ever on the alert for something pleasant for her friends, surprised Mr. and Mrs. W. G.
Bailey last night with an elegant supper, laid in their own dining-room, in honor of the 18th anniversary of their wedding.

Mrs. Fletcher had quietly invited a number of guests, seated them in the parlor and while Mr. and Mrs.
Bailey were sent in to entertain them,
she, assisted by Mr. Bailey's sister, Mrs. Beal of Charleston, S. C., who is visiting him, prepared the supper. After quite a merry time, enjoyed in both parlor and dining-room,
the guests departed, leaving many congratulations to this happy couple,
whose greatest pleasure is to make others happy.—Waldo News, 7th.

That was a regular "old-time" Republican convention held in St. Augustine last Thursday.

Office is the issue with the Florida Republicans, remarks The Tampa News. And it is also the issue with the Florida Democrats, Mr. News.

The stores are "houses of opportunity" these days—of price concessions rarely made in these days—and the ads. are the guidebooks that "interpret" them for you.

There are three or four nice people in this city who will be glad to pay the rent of your house in return for furnished rooms in it. A "furnished rooms" ad. will find them.

A good many families in this city make money by keeping boarders—a few fall to. These latter try to "get on" without advertising—a practically impossible thing in that line of business.

Early sales of strawberries indicate that the crop will bring good prices. Buyers have paid 20 cents per quart for the fruit delivered in Starke. With a good strawberry season Starke will forget that there was ever such a thing as a financial stringency.—Starke Telegraph.

The temperance people of Duval county have presented their petition calling a "wet" or "dry" election. The county commissioners will pass upon the petition in a few days and if it is found to contain the required number of signatures the election will be called. The campaign will be a hot one.

J. F. Futch of Santa Fe, who has been serving the people of his district as a member of the school board since the last election, has resigned, and Prof. F. H. Ellis, a well-known citizen and former school teacher of the county, has been recommended to the Governor as his successor. Prof. Ellis is a good man, perfectly competent, and would fill the position admirably.

Joe Lee, the negro who holds the lucrative office of collector of internal revenue for Florida, is one of the ablest men of his race in the United States, and as a parliamentarian it is conceded that he has no superior in Florida. It is through Lee's influence with the negro race that the administration forces control delegates to the National Republican Convention, and in return therefor he holds the best office in the State with in the gift of the President.

The recent assassination of Elias Sapp at Newberry, followed by the lynching of Jack Long, who had been arrested on suspicion of having committed the foul murder, and the murder at High Springs on Friday, are all deeply regretted by the law-abiding people of Alachua county. The Sun is not advised of the nature of the evidence against Long, but he should have been given a trial in the courts of the land, and if found guilty executed in a legal manner. One legal hanging in the county will do more to put a stop to murder than a dozen lynchings, for the latter is a crime, and crime begets crime.

A NEW ERA IN POLITICS.

A well-known modern historian, in characterizing the end of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries, says that the distinguishing quality in politics is seen in the application of principles of morality to business. Those who would classify the career of President Roosevelt in its relation to civic life will find that he is pre-eminently at home on the fringe-line of this master-tendency, which with increasing force has come to dominate practically every great popular movement.

In the light of this principle, the reactionary temper which comforts itself with the belief that the things for which, with proper exception, President Roosevelt stands in national life will pass to the rear with his retirement from office, are indulging themselves with one of the vaguest of illusions. The President is simply a type in whom for the time being is personified a body of convictions at which a younger generation of the great American people has slowly but irrevocably arrived.

As the leader of this tendency he has been one of the most powerful of constructive influences. This generation is rapidly laying aside its older leaders, and just as rapidly schooling its successors in the convictions of a newer era. He who thinks that this younger generation of men will lay aside the discipline, the sense of dominion and the assurance of popular support, has little capacity to read history aright.

The conviction that in some way our material conditions, our business relations and our economic institutions can be made to conform to lines of conduct which will give a fairer chance to the average man without in any essential respect narrowing the rightful opportunity of the exceptional man, is so firmly imbedded in the gospel of the square deal that we may reasonably look forward to a time at which this issue will be worked out in keeping, not only with the spirit of the fathers who founded this nation, but also in harmony with the best institutions and hopes of those who now constitute it.

A WORD FOR THE BOY.

A boy at 15 years of age is at the most important period of his life. He is at the forks of the road. What he needs more than anything else is sympathy and advice. It would be strange indeed if boys did not build "Castles in Spain" at that age, and what they need is the practical suggestion of someone, who is himself a success in life, to guide them. Most people think that boys do not need either sympathy or advice. It is a great mistake. They need it as much as girls. We have never known one of them to refuse to take advice if it were tendered to them at the right time, in the right spirit. The mistake that most people make in talking to boys is that they lecture them in season and out, persecute them with all sorts of foolish suggestions, and expect more from them than they would from a man. If I had any word of counsel to give it would be: Don't lecture a boy. Don't nag him. Don't persecute him if he has done wrong. Don't laugh at him if he has failed, perhaps in some over-ambitious boyish scheme. Don't crush him. Don't break his spirit. Give the boy a chance. Show him his mistake and then tell him what he should do. When you crush a boy's spirit you have ruined the boy. In all probability he will blossom into a first-class dude.—Fraternal Record.

THE HARGIS RETRIBUTION.

There is something particularly gruesome and impressive in the tragic fate of Judge James Hargis of Breathitt county, Kentucky, who has just met his death at the hands of his own son, says The Atlanta Journal.

The man of violence has met a violent death, and surely it could not have come in a form of more terrible retribution.

For a generation this man has occupied a strange position, almost unique in our civilization. Until recently a judge on the bench, he has repeatedly set the law at defiance, and has been recognized as a leading spirit in the implacable feud which has existed in the mountain district of his native State.

How many murders may be directly or indirectly laid at his door it would be impossible to say. He has been a stormy petrel in that section of the commonwealth, and at the same time he has been a leader in the councils of his party. Evidently he was a man of more than ordinary intelligence and might have been a power for good in his community.

But his blood guiltiness was not to go unavenged, though he was able to escape the toils of the law, through fear of powerful influence.

It seems strange enough that he should have lived so long and should have escaped the enemies who encompassed him on every hand.

But fate had its own retribution in store for him, and used the hand of his own son to bring it about. That this youth should have been regardless of human life, even to the extent of slaying his own father, is not remarkable when we consider the atmosphere in which he must have spent his daily life. It was an atmosphere of murder and it is not surprising that it has developed its logical fruit in the tragedy which has just been enacted.

TESTING METHODS

A test as to the value of newspaper advertising over other methods was made a year ago by the great publishing house of Harper & Bros. Two books were selected, one by a well known popular author and the other by an unknown writer. The latter was selected for the newspaper advertising and the other for the usual channels.

With equal expenditure the work advertised in the newspapers outstripped the other in sales by 500,000 copies.

The result was a complete surprise and established the fact that readers go to the newspapers for information with regard to books as well as with regard to most other matters.—National Printer-Journalist.

The best advertising medium for any merchant is the local paper which goes into the homes of the people, as this paper does.

HOME OF THE DOLL.

Methods of the ingenious Thuringian Toy-makers.

Dollmaking did not become conspicuous as an industry in the Thuringian mountains until the middle of the nineteenth century, when a citizen of Sonneberg brought from London a doll which was regarded as a great curiosity. It had come originally from China, and its head, legs and arms were movable. This furnished an inspiration to the ingenious Thuringian toy-makers, who promptly improved upon it. Up to that time they had made dolls only of wood and leather, but soon they evolved the wax head—at first a crude article, the wax being applied with a brush, but later brought to high perfection, thanks, it is said, to an accidental discovery. A man engaged in making the heads dropped a thimble into his pot of fluid wax and on taking it out found it covered with a smooth and beautiful coat of the substance. He was not slow to seize the idea, the result being the adoption of the dipping process, the final touches of color being put on with a camel's hair pencil. Later on the movable eyes and closing lids, to feign sleep, were added, and the fleece of the Angora goat was substituted for human hair in the making of wigs, holding its color and curl much better, the doll as it is known today thus assuming its final and highly artistic form.

Dressing the dolls after they are made has become an industry in which numbers of women and girls are employed. For the small, inexpensive dolls little chemises, finished with a ruffle of lace around the neck and arms, are made by hundreds and require no skilled labor for their construction.—Rene Bache in Circle.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

[From The Chicago Tribune.]

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established type cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by all druggists.

No Time to Lose.

"Sir," said the young man, entering the office, "I sent you a communication yesterday!"
"Well?" asked the grim faced man.
"Well, Mr. Prater, I thought perhaps you might give me a reply to my request, and—"
"Wait a minute," said Mr. Prater. "Are you the man that sent this account for $10 for hats for my daughter?"
"No, sir; I'm—"
"Then you are the one that left this bill for $25 for her dresses?"
"No, sir. My commu—"
"Then it must be this for $7 for shoes?"
"No, sir. My note was one asking if I might have your daughter's hand."
"You want to marry her?" gasped Mr. Prater. Then, turning over the bill of bills, he urged: "Take her, young man! I don't know your name, but take her quickly! She's talking about doing some more shopping."—London Scraps.

A Paris Restaurant.

The Parisian men are not likely to tumble at being asked to dine in any clothes in any particular London restaurant, for they have in Paris one place where this unwritten law is always been enforced. No man goes to dine at the Armenoville de Bois de Boulogne without putting on his dress clothes. Why fashion has decreed that a Frenchman may be at any of the boulevard restaurants in tenue de ville, but must wear a tailcoat when he drives to the big park of Paris to dine, no one knows. It is custom, and there to a custom is the end of it.—Belman.

Small Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.

HIS PAPERWEIGHT.

Travels of a Bottle of Wine and Its Ultimate Fate.

A paperweight consisting of a piece of thick glass with a tokay wine label fastened on the back and showing through is a part of the desk furniture in the library of a man who goes to Europe nearly every year. "People look at the thing," he said, "and wonder what the wine label is doing there, and when I see the question coming I always tell the story."

"Some years ago I went to Raab, in Hungary, where I called on an old lady who in Vienna years before had shown much interest in and befriended a young American student at the university. The poor student had grown to be a rich physician, and he wanted me to call and present his compliments. When I was about to leave after a pleasant visit the woman handed me a bottle of wine which had come from her estate and asked me to take it to our mutual friend. I carried that bottle all over Europe, paid duty on it several times and finally landed it safe and sound here in the house. A few days after my return we invited the doctor for dinner, and the bottle was brought in with much ceremony. I made a little presentation speech and then in handing it to the doctor dropped it on the floor where you see that stain. That's the label under the glass."—New York Tribune.

HORSE AND DOG.

Contact With Civilization Lessens Their Cunning and Sagacity.

The dog is no doubt the most intelligent of our domestic animals, and I yield to none in my affection for him. I can almost eat and sleep with a fine dog winter and summer. But I try not to deceive myself about his intelligence. It seems to me that if the dog had the least spark of wit akin to our own—that is, power of reason—his long association with man would have fanned it into a flame, however small.

But after all these thousands of years of human companionship and love he has less wit in some respects than his wild brothers, the fox and the wolf. Having been spared the struggle to live that falls to their lot, his cunning and sagacity have deteriorated. The same is true of the horse, which has less intelligence than the wild stallion of the plains and for the same reason.

These animals do not grow wiser as they grow less wild. They do not civilize or develop. We train them into certain ways that make them serviceable to us; we humanize them without adding to their mental capacity. In other words, we cannot cross our intelligence upon theirs and make it fruitful in them. The germ will not take.—John Burroughs in Outing Magazine.

English House Names.

House owners are sometimes rather unfortunate in their selection of names for their abodes, and in suburban house naming is occasionally rather ludicrous. Thus "The Maples" has never a maple near. "The Rosary" only exists in imagination. "Sunnyside" is the most depressing villa residence, and houses named after the English lakes no more suggest the lake district than Fleet street suggests the Bois de Boulogne.

The Anglo-Saxon word "byrst," signifying a forest or wood, has become "hurst" in house naming, and "wood" and "holt" have the same meaning. All house names ending with these terminations are pretty and not unsafe to choose.

It is curious to note that in Hastings and St. Leonards quite a number of houses have typically Saxon names, perhaps to commemorate the great Saxon tragedy of which the name Hastings is reminiscent.

Skin Disease of Twenty Years' Standing Cured.

I want you to know how much Chamberlain's Salve has done for me. It has cured my face of a skin disease of almost twenty years' standing. I have been treated by several smart physicians as we have in this country and they did me no good, but two boxes of this salve has cured me.—Mrs. Fannie Griffin, Troy, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

Proving It.

"Keep up your courage, old man," said the passenger who was a good sailor to another who was leaning over the railing and paying tribute to Neptune.

"Never mind me," came the answer between gasps. "I've always heard that it took travel to bring out what there is in a man."

We often wonder just what the people do think who read our ads. About these Bracelets, however, we want to say that you would understand why we talk of them so much if you could see the interest that is daily shown by those with and without this very faddish piece of jewelry—the number we are selling, etc. Have you seen our line? PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."
